Pre-service: King of Kings

Welcome

Call to Worship - Psalm 95:6

Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker!
In spite of our week and because of our week, we come today recognizing our need for a Saviour. In humility and in our vulnerability, we come bowing down, kneeling, longing to worship our triune God -- Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Song: Living For Jesus

Prayer of Confession – Psalm 119:166-168

Lord God, how we long for more of you. We long to do what pleases you but recognize how often we disobey you, and your Word.

We confess that we do not live up to the family name.
We are more ready to resent, than to forgive,
More ready to manipulate, than to serve,
More ready to keep our distance, than to welcome,
We do not love one another as we should,
because we do not believe that you love us as you do.
Forgive us for our cold unbelief.

Words of Assurance – Psalm 119:162-170

Hear these words of assurance from Psalm 103 and Psalm 119

The LORD is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love. He will not always accuse, nor will he harbor his anger forever; he does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities. For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his love for those who fear him; as far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us.

Father, your promises are the source of our bubbling joy; the revelation of your Word thrills us like the one who has discovered hidden treasure. We will stop to praise you every moment of every day because we know that your ways are perfect.
